❖ Profile Professionel

Graphic and multimedia designer, I create visual identities and digital experiences by combining art direction, illustration, and visual storytelling. Passionate about creative and immersive design, I develop projects that balance aesthetics, functionality, and user engagement.

My skills include branding, communication design, UI design, and front-end development (HTML, CSS, and basic JavaScript), allowing me to transform visual concepts into coherent and interactive digital experiences. I work on a variety of media, including web design, social media visuals, editorial design, interactive content, and illustrated projects.

Detail-oriented, creative, and solution-driven, I approach each project with a strong sense of visual consistency and user experience, creating designs that align with brand identity, communication goals, and audience needs.
